

New First Aid Classes To Start After Easter

Three new first aid classes will start soon after Easter under the sponsorship of the Torrance Adult School. The classes are free to all adults regardless of residence.

One new first aid class will be held each Thursday night at 7:30 at the Torrance Elementary School, room 20, starting March 29, under Dwight Eaton. The second first aid class also will be held by Crum in room 104 of Torrance High School each Monday night at 7:30, starting April 2. The third new first aid class will start on April 10 and will be held each Tuesday night at 7:30 in room 104 of the high school. Lieut. Bill Stidham, top man of 155 South Bay Life Guards, will be instructor for this course.

Executive From England Visiting National Plant

L. S. Dawson, managing director of The Oil Well Engineering Company, Ltd., Cheshire Heath, Stockport, England, is visiting the Torrance plant of The National Supply Company. Oil Well Engineering is an affiliate of the local company, manufacturing National oil well drilling equipment in England.

While Dawson is widely known in drilling circles, making periodic visits to the United States, this is his first visit since 1948. He plans to spend ten days in Torrance checking on new equipment designs, after which he will visit other National plants in the east. His next destination is National's Toledo, Ohio plant.

Dawson is to be guest speaker at the Tuesday dinner meeting of the National Supply Management Club, March 27 at the Palos Verdes Country Club. After completing his tour of inspection, he plans departure on the Queen Mary from New York in the latter part of April.

Her Idea Pays Off

For her suggestion to add a small can of crushed pineapple to regular cherry pie filling, Mrs. Caroline King, 2267 W. Carson street, was awarded $2 by the editors of "Family Circle," a national magazine distributed throughout the United States in chain stores.

Ex-Councilman Here for Short Hospital Stay

Former Councilman and ex-board of Education member, A. L. Jackson was back in Torrance this week, preparing to enter the Torrance Memorial Hospital for a minor operation, he revealed.

The former Ideco executive, who maintains official residence at 1437 Post avenue, has been employed in Portland, Ore., since last September with the Beall Pipe and Tank Manufacturing Company.

The well-known civic leader said he planned to enter the hospital yesterday for a stay of a week to ten days. He would be at home for another "week or so" before returning to his duties in Oregon.

POPULATION UP

California's population expanded from 6,907,387 to 10,586,223 between 1940 and 1950, an increase of more than 53 per cent, according to a University of California College of Agriculture report.

Lutheran Church Plans Four Easter Services

Three church services besides the regular Sunday school period will be held next Sunday morning at First Lutheran Church, Acaela and Sonoma avenues.

Early services will begin at 8:15 with the pastor preaching on the theme "Christ is Risen and Living." Mrs. Jean Arrasmith will assist at the organ for this service. The newly-organized girls' chorus will sing an excerpt from the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel. They will be under the direction of Mrs. Paul Wenske. "200" for the goal will be the ambition of the Sunday school which will meet at the regular time, 9:30. During the opening session of the intermediate department, a large colored authentic painting of the "Resurrection" will be shown on a screen while Miss Alpha Stremple will narrate. Lester Brietendfeldt is the Sunday school superintendent.

The children of the primary department and children between the ages of 3 and 7 are invited to attend this worship service. Children older are invited to attend the regular services. A nursery will be provided for those under 3. Songs and stories will be built around paintings of the Passion and Easter season, for a quiet worship service. Miss Mary Sands of the youth department will be in charge of the nursery.

At 10:45 the second service will be held. The senior choir under the direction of Charles Bartholomew will sing "For Thine is the Holy City." Mrs. Joe Bay will be at the organ.

Holy communion will be observed on Thursday night at 7:30 at First Lutheran Church. The picture to be shown this night will be "The Last Supper," with the pastor preaching on this theme. The girls chorus will sing "A Legend" by Tschakowsky.

Good Friday evening at 7 p.m. the Senior Choir of the church will present the cantata "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Theodore Dubois. The soloists taking part in this program are Mary Bartholomew, Roy Dobrick, Dean, Louge, Wesley Schiggs, Ada Luedke, Lin Braum and John Schwartz. Charles Bartholomew is the director of the choir and Nadine Bay the organist.

Confirmation of four young people and three adults took place on Palm Sunday morning. Six were received into the church by letter of transfer from other Lutheran churches. Those confirmed were: Shirley Winters, Donna Irene Specht, Jimmie Specht, Ordean C. Langerud, Mrs. Marvin McCabe and Mr. Sidney Larson.

The following were received by letter: Dr. T. S. Harris and

Fairbanks Signed for Theater Guild Airing

Douglas Fairbanks Jr. will star in "A Tale of Two Cities" on the March 25 program of "Theater Guild On The Air," via stations of the National Broadcasting Company network at 5:30 p.m.

Returning for his second broadcast of the season on the U. S. Steel hour, Fairbanks will portray a dual role of the condemned Charles Darnay and Sydney Carton, the swashbuckling adventurer of Dickens' exciting classic of the French Revolution.
